ISSIP Service Economics COI members and guests.

This week we will be using GO TO MEETING instead of WEB-EX due to Steve Kwan's absence. The link and info are below.

We did not have any new volunteers or other suggestions for topics. Please do not be shy here. We do not require any formal presentations, you can simply lead a discussion around a particular topic of interest. Otherwise this will become a Doug and Steve show and no one wants that.

We have spent some time on Macroeconomics and trade and Customer Value creation. I will lead a short discussion on some of the micro economic issues facing businesses today and open the meeting for any other general topics.

New Meeting

Fri, Nov 13, 2015 5:00 AM - 5:30 AM Pacific Standard Time

Please join my meeting from your computer, tablet or smartphone.

Dear Doug

Every Friday that ISSIP has had its telephone calls in the last few months I have had to do something else ... hopefully this Friday will work.

All the best

Peter
