Patents for Entrepreneurs — Crown Jewels or Shiny Objects?

Nov 19 2015, 5:30 – 8:30 PM

“If you don’t have a patent, you don’t have a prayer on Shark Tank,” as John Oliver began his diatribe on the problems with patents. Black humor with questionable substance, but never has there been such widespread and deep confusion about patents, from the man on the street, to the press, the courts, Congress, the Supreme Court, and President Obama. Joking aside, how should entrepreneurs view patents?
