

PROGRAM UPDATES 2012

The Carpenter's Kids Program is about to finish its seventh year, with more than 6,600 children in the Diocese of Central Tanganyika afforded the opportunity for education. We are thankful to all parishes and individuals who have been faithfully dedicated to this mission. Based on discussions with Bishop Mhogolo this summer, it has been decided that the program, as it now exists, will sunset the end of 2015. At this time, Bishop Mhogolo will be retiring and we will await the direction of the new bishop. Although the program will not function as it currently does, we know that strong bonds of friendship and partnership have developed. We will be working with DCT and all of our partners to comfortable hotel where you will have a private room and bath.

The hotel also has two restaurants with many food choices. You will visit your link parish and those of others, tour all programs supported by the Diocese of Central Tanganyika, meet Bishop Mhogolo and our amazing Carpenter's Kids Staff, tour schools, the vocational training center, and experience a one day safari. This is not a
