This battle is personal for us.

Our precious, beautiful, 24-year-old daughter, Jessica, was slaughtered in the Aurora, Colorado theater massacre along with 11 others. Seventy more people were wounded.

Many of them will continue to suffer for the rest of their young lives with horrific pain -- both emotional and physical.

President Obama recognizes that THIS is the time. THIS is the moment. And America should applaud President Obama's bravery to address the epidemic of gun violence when Congress would not.

But it's time for Congress to listen to the will of the American people and pass common-sense gun safety laws. THIS is the time. Will you join us in signing the petition?

America is sick of the 33,000 American lives taken every year by guns.

By taking action, President Obama is listening to the will of 90% of Americans, including the 85% of gun owners who want to take common-sense actions.

Americans want change. So, when faced with an epidemic of gun violence, why is Congress so dead-set against saving lives?

We're asking that you join us and demand action from Republicans in Congress right now. If enough people speak up, they'll be forced to listen.

Will you demand Congress act to prevent gun violence?

Thanks,

Sandy and Lonnie Phillips
