Share knowledge with your group!

Welcome and thank you for joining the ICAEW Sustainability LinkedIn Group.

Our ambition is to change behaviour to drive sustainable outcomes. To do this, we aim to be bold, radical and open-minded. The unifying theme of our work is exploring how organisations and markets are motivated to deliver sustainable outcomes and what the role of information flows is in that. We aim to be at the forefront of thinking and action in sustainability focussing on how organisations embrace it in their activities.

We would encourage you to join us in these discussions, whether you initiate them or reply to others. This is your group so please feel free to suggest any comments or improvements you would like to see. And don't forget to keep your profile up-to-date so other members know who you are.

If you have any further queries or questions, please contact:
